My self-summary P

I am looking for a great relationship with a man who is passionate about life - his, mine and ours.

Great chemistry is key - intellectual, emotional and physical. I'm insatiably curious. I love to know how things work, and will take an interest in your pursuits and passions. But will draw the line at spending endless hours sitting on the sofa watching TV... not my gig.

A perfect evening at home includes great food, likely a bottle of very good wine, great music (a bit of dancing as we prepare the food), great friends and always great conversation.

Life is a curious adventure designed for those passionate about experiencing all of it. As you can tell, I am just happy to be here and pursuing what's next.

I'm successfully divorced and have a good relationship with my ex! Yes, that took a bit of work, but happy to be where we are now - great parents to a fabulous 16 year-old boy.

My idea of a good match includes:

Someone who is willing to spend at least part of his time on the East End of Long Island (or wants to - who doesn't love the ocean?). I'm a mom to a 16-year old boy and while I do have freedom to travel, most weeks during the school year, I am anchored here.

I value a man with an open mind and an open heart and who acts with integrity. You are confident and take care of yourself physically and emotionally. I believe navigating relationships is important for a successful partnership, and that the most powerful indicator of our future success is how well you take care of you right now.

When we walk together, I would love to find your hand on the small of my back guiding me to where you want me to go... there's nothing sexier than that... well there is, but let's start there.

*I know myself and my tastes well and I know prefer a tall man. I am a tall woman and how our bodies fit together is key to physical chemistry and attractiveness. I love to be enveloped and entwined in passionate embraces.

What I'm doing with my life P

Continuing to evolve on this path - physically, emotionally and spiritually - and know that the universe has my back. I keep myself fit (TRX and interval training), I pay attention to nutrition and care for my body well - i'm fit and healthy. I'm even-keeled emotionally. I practice meditation and yoga. I realized a long time ago that thoughts are things and we are the creators of our own reality. Life is a great ride and I intend to enjoy all of it (and I hope you'll join me)

I'm currently enjoying the east end of Long Island. Raising a 16-year-old boy who will be on his own in the next blink of an eye. Enjoying the beach whenever I can. Traveling to Costa Rica, Lake Powell and San Francisco this year and will welcome new adventures with you.

I love the city -- the heartbeat and vibe of New York. My favorite pastimes are visiting galleries and museums (LOVE a visit to MoMa and dinner at The Modern), off Broadway, restaurants, street fairs, walking interesting neighborhoods - I love it all.

Professionally, I have had a very successful corporate career and am done with that now. I now coach other women in the basic tenets of how to live well and be healthy and happy in all aspects of living. I love the independence and freedom that brings and the rewards of helping women get out of their own muck and finally be free to enjoy the lives they have always wanted.

I'm really good at P

Manifesting what I want in my life - from parking spaces to great places to live, wonderful friends, the perfect clients, and hopefully you...

Listening, laughing, cooking, entertaining. I love working hard and playing hard. When the weekend comes, I want to gather with friends for backyard barbeques and beach bonfires or snuggling up for a quiet evening with you in front of the fire with no need to hurry for anything.

Saying what's on my mind and sharing my deepest desires. There will never be any reason to guess where you stand or what I want. I think talking is key - especially in the bedroom.

I have a keen sense of style and fashion, but I'm not a slave to it. I know how to throw a great party and put myself together well. I'm intelligent and attractive, sensual and soulful.

I'm also very good at making sure you know you are the most admired and desired man in the universe. I'm passionate about everything in my life and especially the man I share it with.

Favorite books, movies, shows, music, and food P

I rarely watch TV. As far as books - I'm an admitted self-help junkie who reads about one or two novels each year. I love great film - in any language - going to the Tribeca and Hamptons Film Festivals are highlights of the Spring and Fall.

I love great music of any genre but especially from contemporary singer songwriters. I also have a love for jazz (Miles, Coltrane), and blues (Tedeschi Trucks Band, Stevie Ray, Clapton).

I love the energy, art and pulse of New York City - my home for 16 years and I visit as often as I can.

The six things I could never do without P

Sunshine, the ocean, a really great tomato, fresh seafood, love, sex, laughter.... yes, I know that's seven.

I spend a lot of time thinking about P

I used to question whether there is such a thing as a "the one." What I have come to know now is that I am looking for a forever love. I want the deep connection that true commitment brings - the willingness to support each other and grow together for the rest of time. I have experienced unconditional love and now know how deeply wonderful it feels and that is what I want to both give and receive in my next relationship.

Why age matters. We are ageless beings... I love the wisdom and maturity and extra sauciness that being in my 50's brings. I don't understand older men who are interested only in young women and see that as short sighted and really missing out on the full flavor of a mature and complex vintage... plus it's true what they say about sex... just sayin'.

On a typical Friday night I am P

Wrapping up my week, winding down with friends.
